Apothecary

The classic design of urns have been a staple of the Georgian and American Empire, spanning the periods of the 17th and 18th century homes through the Victorian era, and continue to influence many of today's interiors. The original apothecaries had top mounted glass matching the main glass. Its purpose was to control the candle flames and protect the ceilings. Artcraft has recreated this look in a variety of sizes, with either diamond cut or etched hand blown glassware. The beauty of these hand blown urns is accentuated in its artistic shape and seamless glass finish. Classic and timeless.

Les Urnes Apothicaires prédominaient les 17 et 18ième siècle lors de l'époque Classique et elles séduisent toujours les décorateurs d'aujourd'hui. Artcraft offre avec "Apothecary" des verres soufflés à la main, dans une variété de grandeurs et en 2 différents motifs.
